Why Quit Now?

It is never too late to quit tobacco!

Quitting tobacco during pregnancy will help your baby by:

Promoting healthier brain development

Lowering risk of miscarriage, stillbirth and Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)

Lowering risk of being born too small or too early

Lowering risk of coughs, colds and ear infections

Lowering risk of asthma

Lowering risk of cancer, diabetes and heart disease when your baby grows up

Help to Cope with Stress

Many people smoke, vape or dip to deal with stress or sadness. But did you know that tobacco use also causes anxiety and sadness? That's because any time you are not using tobacco, even for a short time, your body experiences nicotine withdrawal, which is stressful. Studies show that when you quit for good, your mood and anxiety improve in the long run. Quit coaches can help you find ways to handle tough situations, like when you are feeling stressed.
